Counterclaimant,

v.

Interworks Unlimited, Inc., a California ) corporation, )

Counter-defendant )

- 1 1. I am an authorized representative of Plaintiff Interworks Unlimited, Inc.
2 (“Plaintiff”) and am authorized to make this declaration on its behalf. I have 3 personal knowledge of each of the facts set forth in this Declaration, and can 4 testify competently thereto, except as to the matters stated on information and 5 belief, and as to such matters I believe them to be true.
- 6 2. I am also a custodian of records of the Plaintiff and am authorized to 7 authenticate the exhibits stated below. These exhibits contain information
8 compiled, prepared or received by qualified personnel of the Plaintiff in the 9 course of regularly conducted business activities, were made at or near the time 10 of the occurrence of the matters set forth by a person with knowledge of those 11 matters, pursuant to a business duty to keep accurate and complete records, are 12 made and kept in the course of the regularly-conducted business activities, and 13 were made and kept by the regularly conducted business activities as a regular 14 practice.
- 15 3. Plaintiff is a distributor of electronic goods.
- 16 4. It was the exclusive U.S. distributor of hoverboards manufactured by the 17 Chinese company Hangzhou Chic Intelligent Technology CO., Ltd. including 18 the hoverboards entitled “Chic High Roller Self Balancing Hoverboard Model 19 C” (“Model C”).
- 20 5. In late 2016, Plaintiff started selling Model C’s through QVC, Inc. (“QVC”).
- 21 6. Prior to selling the hoverboards, Plaintiff was required to, and did, submit the 22 hoverboards to QVC for quality testing.
- 23 7. The Model C’s subsequently passed QVC’s quality testing. A true and correct
24 copy of the QVC Quality Assurance report that the Plaintiff received from QVC
25 reflecting this is attached to Plaintiff’s Exhibits and Evidence in Support of 26 Motion for Summary Judgment (“PE”) as Exhibit 1 and incorporated by reference.
- 27 8. QVC assigned the Model C’s it purchased from the Plaintiff with a Stock
28 Keeping Unit (“SKU”) number of T34604 (“604”).

1 9. The Model C's were designated as a warehouse item. That means, after a
2 consumer purchased the hoverboards, the Plaintiff would deliver the product to 3 QVC, who would deliver the product to the customer.

4 10. As the holiday season approached, QVC wanted to purchase more Model C's
5 from Plaintiff and was interested in purchasing the hoverboards on a "drop-6 ship" basis.

7 11. For a drop ship item, as opposed to a warehouse item, QVC continues to sell a
8 vendor's products; however, the vendor is not required to deliver the products
9 to QVC, and QVC does not deliver to the consumer. Rather, a vendor delivers
10 the products directly to the purchasing customer, cutting down a significant 11 amount of time.

12 12. Plaintiff, however, did not have the ability to "drop ship" the hoverboards to 13 QVC's customers.

14 13. Thus, in or about December of 2016, Plaintiff decided to enter into an 15 arrangement with Defendant Digital Gadgets, LLC. ("Defendant"), who said
16 they had the ability to drop ship with QVC.

17 14. In that arrangement, the Defendant would purchase the Model C's from the 18 Plaintiff. QVC's customer would then purchase the boards from QVC and then 19 the Defendant would ship the boards directly to QVC's customer.

20 15. The two individuals I spoke to primarily for the Defendant were Chris Mitchell
21 and Charles Tebele.

22 16. The Plaintiff and Defendant understood that Defendant was purchasing the 23 same exact units that Plaintiff had been selling through QVC.

24 17. On or about December 9, 2016, Defendant placed an order with the Plaintiff for 25 4800 Model C's of varying colors at $190/unit, agreeing to pay a total of 26 $912,000.00, payable Net 60 Days.

27 18. The hoverboards were shipped to the Defendant in 8 separate shipments. A true
28 and correct copy of the 8 invoices prepared by the Plaintiff that reflect these 8

1 shipments are attached in the PE as Exhibit 2 and incorporated by reference. A
2 true and correct copy of the 8 picking sheets that Plaintiff prepared are attached
3 in the PE as Exhibit 3 and incorporated by reference. And a true and correct
4 copy of the Bills of Lading for each of the 8 shipments are attached in the PE as
5 Exhibit 4 and incorporated by reference.

6 19. Per Defendant's instructions, the Plaintiff shipped the hoverboards to Phoenix
7 Warehouse in the City of Santa Fe Springs.

8 20. Subsequently, and at Defendant's behest, after the hoverboards were shipped,
9 Plaintiff gave Defendant a discount of $30 on 1,613 of those 4800 hoverboards
10 for a total discount of $48,390.00. A true and correct copy of the credit memo
11 that Plaintiff prepared reflecting this discount is attached in the PE as Exhibit 5
12 and incorporated by reference.

13 21. Thus, for the first order, the Defendant purchased $863,610.00 worth of Model C's.

14 22. On or about December 23, 2016, Defendant again ordered another 6000 Model
15 C's hoverboards of varying colors, this time agreeing to pay $215.00 each, Net
16 60 Days, for a total of $1,290,000. A true and correct copy of the purchase
17 order sent by the Defendant and received by the Plaintiff that reflects this 18 purchase is attached in the PE as Exhibit 6 and incorporated by reference. A 19 true and correct copy of the 5 invoices prepared by the Plaintiff that reflects the 20 original purchase price are attached in the PE as Exhibit 7 and incorporated by 21 reference.

22 23. After placing the second order, again, at Defendant's behest, Plaintiff provided
23 Defendant with a discount on the second order of $55.00 per hoverboard. A true
24 and correct copy of the 5 invoices prepared by the Plaintiff reflecting the 25 discounted price are attached in the PE as Exhibit 8 and incorporated by 26 reference.

27 24. The hoverboards were also shipped to Phoenix warehouse in 5 separate 28 shipments. A true and correct copy of the 5 picking sheets prepared by the

1 Plaintiff that reflect the 5 separate shipments are attached in the PE as Exhibit 9
2 and incorporated by reference. And a true and correct copy of the Bills of 3 Lading for each of the 5 shipments are attached in the PE as Exhibit 10 and
4 incorporated by reference.

5 25. Of the 6000 hoverboards ordered, the Plaintiff delivered a total of 5808
6 hoverboards, for a total bill of $929,280.00.

7 26. Thus, together with the first order, the Defendant ordered a total of 8 $1,792,890.00 worth of Model C's from the Plaintiff.

9 27. As of today, the Defendant has only made three payments for these two 10 purchases. On or about December 23, 2016, the Plaintiff received a payment of 11 $570,000.00. On or about March 1, 2017, the Plaintiff received another
12 payment of $99,460.00, and, on or about March 13, 2017, the Plaintiff received 13 another payment of $95,850.00.

14 28. Since then, there have been no other payments received for these two 15 purchases, nor has there been any additional discounts provided. Defendant, 16 thus, has an outstanding balance owing of $1,027,580.00.

17 29. During the course of our initial conversations, Plaintiff and Defendant discussed
18 the possibility of Defendant being the exclusive vendor of the Model C's for 19 QVC. I responded that we can have such an agreement but wanted to first meet 20 to discuss our partnership further. A true and correct of an email reflecting such 21 a discussion is attached in the PE as Exhibit 11 and incorporated by reference.

22 30. However, the conversation did not continue, and the two sides never agreed to 23 an exclusivity agreement or execute any sort of written exclusivity agreement.

24 31. On or about April 16, 2017, with a balance owing of $1,027,580.00, the 25 Defendant proposed, in part, on keeping all the boards, pay 50% by May 1, 26 2017, and pay the remaining 50% by June 5, 2017. As part of the proposal, the 27 Defendant approached the exclusivity issue again and asked for "an exclusive 28 contract drafted per our conversation." A true and correct copy of the proposal

1 that I received by email is attached in the PE as Exhibit 12 and incorporated by
2 reference.

3 32.The Plaintiff never agreed this proposal.

4 33.On or about June 5, 2017, I requested by email that Defendant either pay the 5 outstanding balance or to return the Model C's. A true and correct copy of that 6 request is attached in the PE as Exhibit 13 and incorporated by reference.

7 34.On or about June 6, 2017, the Defendant responded by ignoring the outstanding
8 balance issue but instead alleged that the hoverboards that the Plaintiff sold it
9 had "a litany of QA issues." A true and correct copy of that email reflecting 10 this response is attached in the PE as Exhibit 14 and incorporated by reference.

11 35.I responded the same day requesting that Defendant return the alleged defective
12 hoverboards and asked that Defendant share a copy of the alleged QVC's QA
13 report ("QVC's QA Report"). A true and correct copy of the email reflecting 14 the foregoing response is also attached in the PE as Exhibit 14 and incorporated
15 by reference. A true and correct copy of the QVC QA Report that I received 16 from the Defendant is attached in the PE as Exhibit 15 and incorporated by 17 reference.

18 36.The Defendant continued to refuse to pay and refused to return the products.

19 37.On or about June 23, 2017, I sent Defendant an email accompanied by a Return
20 Merchandise Authorization Number ("RMA") of 1420 for the return of 5808
21 Model C's, and asking Defendant to make arrangement for its pick-up. A true 22 and correct copy of this email reflecting the foregoing is attached in the PE as 23 Exhibit 16 and incorporated by reference.

24 38.Defendant did not respond to this email.

25 39.Plaintiff sent another email on June 27, 2017 to reiterate its request to pick-up
26 the boards. A true and correct copy of the email reflecting the foregoing is also 27 attached in the PE as Exhibit 16 and incorporated by reference. Again,
28 Defendant did not respond.

1 40. Plaintiff sent a third email on June 27, 2017 to request an update. Defendant
2 finally responded, telling Plaintiff that the hoverboards were "currently on 3 HOLD pending legal review." A true and correct copy of the emails reflecting 4 the foregoing conversation are also attached in the PE as Exhibit 16 and
5 incorporated by reference.

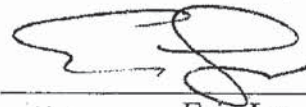

6 41. As of today, the Plaintiff has not received any returned hoverboards from the 7 Defendant.

8 42. If the boards were returned today, the Plaintiff would not be able to sell them.

9 43. As of today, the Defendant has not notified the Plaintiff of any claim or suit
10 related to the hoverboards Plaintiff sold to the Defendant.

11
12 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of 13 America that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on 11-8-18 -
